PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Freelance Graphic & Visual Designer | Various Clients | 2014 - Present

- Designed graphics for social media, marketing campaigns, brand materials, websites, newsletters, presentations, eBooks, manuals, and advertising assets for client-based projects across professional services, coaching, education, marketing, and small business sectors.
- Created visually consistent assets aligned with each client's brand voice, including logos, color palettes, typography systems, social templates, promotional graphics, presentation layouts, and digital campaign materials.
- Developed creative concepts and visual directions from client briefs, then refined designs through feedback while keeping deliverables polished, organized, and ready for use.
- Edited and retouched images for digital and print use, including cleanup, formatting, color correction, layout integration, and preparation for final delivery.
- Maintained consistency across multiple outputs and formats, including social media posts, website graphics, email/newsletter visuals, PDFs, presentations, and print-friendly materials.
- Redesigned the website for Coaching y Psicología, contributing to a 24% increase in website traffic and a 19% increase in course enrollments.
- Developed the visual identity for Coaching y Psicología, including logo design, newsletters, presentations, course materials, eBooks, and promotional assets.
- Created social media campaign graphics and digital advertising materials to improve brand visibility, audience engagement, and communication clarity.
- Managed multiple design projects at once, balancing deadlines, revisions, client communication, and production-ready file delivery.
- Applied UI/UX-informed thinking to web and digital materials, including responsive layouts, information architecture, accessibility considerations, wireframes, prototypes, and usability testing.
